

Texas Hill Country Stock Dog Association

is proud to present the

Dry Creek Sheep Dog Trial

January 23rd & 24th

8:00am to 5:00pm

Free to Watch

Located at the Noah Ranch on Jones Cemetery Road
Kendalia, Texas

Top dogs and handlers from all over Texas and the surrounding states will compete for money and prizes.
Enjoy vendors, food booths, and incredible stock work each day.

Great sponsorship and vendor opportunities are still available for the Dry Creek SDT and the Highland Games SDT starting at just $50!

Call Suzy Noah at 830~336~2487 or email Catherine Laria at cdlaria@gvtc.com TODAY for details.

Or visit www.thcsda.org

The Texas Hill Country Stock Dog Association was established to create an interest and to provide understanding in the breeding, working, training, & trialing of stock dogs in San Antonio, the Texas Hill Country, and surrounding areas.

Since its inception, in 1996, club sponsored trials and clinics allow people from all over Texas to visit the area and partake in community events. THCSDA is the largest organized herding association in the southwest.